

Heidi Stevenson DRE Instructor of the Year Award Criteria

The "Heidi Stevenson DRE Instructor of the Year Award" is an annual recognition presented in memory of Heidi Stevenson, who was tragically killed in the line of duty. This award honours an instructor who has demonstrated exemplary service and outstanding contributions to the Drug Recognition Expert (DRE) program.

Selection Criteria:

- Demonstrated exemplary service within the DRE program.
- Outstanding contributions to the DRE program.

Nomination Process:

- Recommendations for the award can be submitted by the recipient's service or by Ontario DRE instructors.

Selection Committee:

- The award recipient will be decided by the co-chairs of the OACP Traffic Safety Committee.
