

Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police

presents the

Lifetime Achievement in Traffic Safety Award

Sponsored by the CAA South Central Ontario

In Ontario's policing community, certain individuals clearly stand out as life-long leaders in the field of traffic safety. These visionaries display a tireless dedication and a never-ending devotion to their pursuit of ensuring the public's safety on our highways. This commitment is shown throughout their policing career and involves the development of strategic partnerships, championing new solutions, and ensuring effective enforcement and educational activities both within the policing profession and externally throughout their communities.

Awarded annually by the Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police and sponsored by the CAA South Central Ontario, the "Lifetime Achievement in Traffic Safety Award" will be presented to one currently serving individual who has clearly devoted themselves and their policing efforts to furthering traffic safety in Ontario.

Appendix B: Selection Criteria

Submissions for the Lifetime Achievement in Traffic Safety Award will be reviewed by the OACP Traffic Committee, with the final selection made by the OACP Awards and Honours Committee.

The following criteria will be used to choose this year's recipient:

The Nomination Report:

The nomination report details the nominee's career with specific emphasis on their achievements and contributions relating to traffic policing concerns. Items such as championing enforcement programs, proving leadership through mentoring and educational pursuits, and taking action to address specific community concerns, should be highlighted. This report must clearly prove a career-spanning, determined and dedicated effort to improving the level of highway safety in the nominee's community. Involvement in initiatives at various levels, across multiple communities, possibly at provincial and even federal levels should be detailed.

Please ensure that your nomination report/form addresses the following:

1. Career-Spanning Commitment to Traffic Safety

The nominee has clearly proven a dedicated commitment to traffic safety issues throughout their career. Recognition of the nominee's efforts should be detailed.

2. Mentoring and Teaching

The nominee has dedicated him/herself to traffic policing excellence by mentoring, supporting, and teaching others. These efforts have been directed at both the community the nominee serves and the policing profession.

3. Effective and Innovative Use of Enforcement Activities

Throughout the nominee's career, a variety of enforcement activities have been undertaken to address a wide range of traffic safety issues.

4. A Passion for Addressing Community Concerns

The nominee has displayed a genuine involvement and sense of partnership with community stakeholders. The nominee has consistently proven that they will take effective action to ease their community's traffic safety concerns.

5. Impact

The nomination submission should clearly prove the extent of the nominee's impact on traffic safety issues. Results achieved across various communities, provincially or federally will be of particular interest.

Appendix D: Presentation of this Award

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, and the uncertainty as to when it will be safe and appropriate to gather in-person in 2021, the OACP Award presentations will move to a predominantly online format. The OACP will be announcing the recipients of the 2021 OACP Awards via our website and official social media channels (Twitter | Instagram) during Police Week.

Following those announcements, the OACP will coordinate with the Chief/Commissioner of the award recipients to ensure the recipients are presented with their award at an in-person event in their respective communities.
